What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 7 out of 7, which is the highest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a very high level in poor market conditions. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. You may not be able to close your position easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts your realised profit/loss.

Performance Scenarios

This graph illustrates how your investment could perform. You can compare this graph with the pay-off graphs of other derivatives. The graph presented gives a range of possible outcomes and is not an exact indication of what you might get back. What you get will vary depending on how the underlying product will develop. For each value of the underlying product, the graph shows what the profit or loss of the product would be. The horizontal axis shows the various possible prices of the underlying product on the dates to expiry shown and the vertical axis shows the profit and loss. Buying this product implies that you think the price of the underlying product will increase. The maximum loss is restricted to the cost of purchase. The price of the underlying product must move above a level defined by the Subscription Price for the contract to be "in the money".

What happens if Cordiant Digital Infrastructure Limited is unable to pay out?

As the holder of a Subscription Share in Cordiant Digital Infrastructure Limited you would not be able to make a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme about the Company in the event that the Company is unable to pay out.
